I grew up in a Navy family, and as a result I had the opportunity to spend much of my life in different places in the U.S. and overseas. I learned about the CFD volunteer program after knocking on the door of an Albany fire station and asking they had any volunteering opportunities. Coincidentally, a former CFD rural volunteer answered and recommended that I apply to Corvallis. As a CFD Volunteer, I am seeking to serve my community while also gaining experience working in EMS and Fire. Being a volunteer also provides me the opportunity to explore career paths outside of, yet still closely tied to the medical field.”
